Rank Advancement

Scout Rank

Throughout the year we have the pleasure of welcoming new Scouts to our Troop. When each new boy joins the troop, he is encouraged to quickly earn the Scout Rank. To do this, a boy must learn the Boy Scout Oath, Promise and Law as well as the Scout Sign, Salute, and Handshake.

Scout Rank

We recognize the following Scouts this evening for earning the Scout Rank since our last Court of Honor:

None this evening

Tenderfoot Rank

Tenderfoot requirements offer a taste of the great adventures awaiting you in Scouting and can give you the basic skills you'll need to begin taking part in those adventures. You met many challenges in earning the Tenderfoot badge and are to be congratulated.

Tenderfoot Rank

We recognize the following Scouts this evening for earning the Tenderfoot Scout Rank since our last Court of Honor:

Landon Hays

Second Class Scout

To earn Second Class, a Scout must learn how to use a map and compass, how and when to build a campfire, and to safely use pocket knives and wood tools. Second Class Scouts have proven their abilities in camping, first aid, and swimming, and other Scout skills.

Second Class Scout

We recognize the following Scouts this evening for earning the Second Class Scout Rank since our last Court of Honor:

Broden Muller

First Class Scout

The founder of Scouting, Lord Baden Powell, said that all Scouts should earn First Class. Now you have tested yourself even more. You have tried greater adventures and practiced your Scout skills many times. With your confidence and knowledge you now have, people will expect more of you, and you will expect more of yourself. You are prepared to be more of a leader in your patrol, your troop, and your community.

First Class Scout

We recognize the following Scouts this evening for earning the First Class Scout Rank since our last Court of Honor:

Jack Fairman

Broden Muller

Star Scout

As you earn your Star Rank, you have more freedom to choose the directions that interest you. The focus shifts from basic Scout skills to earning the first six merit badges you will need for Eagle. Requirements now include service to others. The Star Rank also requires the Scout to be active in his troop for at least four months. Of course, you may take longer if you wish.

In addition, the Star Scout must serve his troop in a position of leadership for at least four months and take part in at least one service project.

Star Scout

We recognize the following Scouts this evening for earning the Star Scout Rank since our last Court of Honor:

None this evening

Life Scout

The Life Rank is one of the rarest ranks. This is the last rank before Eagle. You could complete your Eagle Rank now in as few as 6 months. We congratulate you and encourage you to reach for that next step. You have earned more than half of the merit badges required for Eagle.

The Life Rank also requires the Scout to be active in his troop for at least six months, serve his troop in a position of leadership for at least six months, and take part in at least one service project.

Life Scout

We recognize the following Scouts this evening for earning the Life Scout Rank since our last Court of Honor:

None this evening

Eagle Scout

The Eagle Rank is Scouting's highest award. Only a small percentage of Scouts have ever reached this lofty goal. The Eagle Rank is presented in a special Eagle Scout Court of Honor and not here this evening.

Eagle Scout

We recognize the following Scouts this evening for earning the Eagle Scout Rank since our last Court of Honor:

Ian Kleditz

Zach Szklarz

Eagle Palms

Some people think that after becoming an Eagle Scout, a scout has reached the end of the trail. That is not true. Scouts that continue to lead, serve, and grow as an Eagle, expanding scouting knowledge and sharing expertise with new scouts joining the troop may earn Eagle Palms. An Eagle Palm may be earned after 90 days of service to the troop, completion of 5 additional merit badges and a Scoutmaster Conference.

Change of Leadership

Each six months, the Troop holds elections for Scout leadership. These elections were held last week, and new Scouts were chosen to lead the Troop for the next six months.

Mr. Boyd will now swear in our new Senior Patrol Leader, who will in turn, swear in the Assistant Senior Patrol Leader and the Patrol Leaders.
